

COMMUNITY FORUM

Safe & Complete Streets for West Palm Beach

Organized by the Center for Urban and Environmental Solutions (CUES) at Florida Atlantic University in partnership with Mayor Jeri Muoio, City of West Palm Beach

Tuesday, July 19, 2016, 6 - 8 PM

City Hall

Flagler Gallery

401 Clematis Street, West Palm Beach

Agenda:

- Introduction by John L. Renne, Associate Professor and Director of CUES, FAU
- Welcome by Mayor Jeri Muoio
- “National Best Practices in Safe and Complete Streets” by Eric Dumbaugh, Associate Professor, FAU
- “Lessons of Creating Complete Streets in New Orleans Since Hurricane Katrina” by Tara Tolford, Research Associate, University of New Orleans
- “Major Bicycle and Pedestrian Project in West Palm Beach” by Scott Kelly, Assistant City Administrator, West Palm Beach
- “Engaging the Public in West Palm Beach,” Sherryl Muriente, Creative Director at LeJobart
- “Role of Advocacy,” Jesse Bailey, Founder, Walkable West Palm Beach
- Panel Q&A and Community Dialog on how to create Safe and Complete Streets for West Palm Beach

On June 2, 2016 the City Revealed this Conceptual Plan for Broadway between 25th and 42nd Streets

For additional information please contact CUES Director:
Dr. John L. Renne at jrenne@fau.edu